

Small Obediences

God's timing is so perfect. This past year, as we look back, has been extreme in terms of the natural realm. Greater demands have been placed upon us in all areas: job, family, and ministry. Yet, because of obeying the Lord through all of this, He has in His great kindness, not just kept us "on track" but actually grew us on a personal level. He is amazing. I want to encourage you, too, that every "small obedience" will reap a great reward. When you hear from heaven, ask your questions, then step up to the plate and see what your King has put on the banqueting table for your enjoyment. He knows what you need before you ask. Pray this with me.

"Dear Father God, thank you for loving me so much you sent Jesus to die for me. Help me, Lord, to live now, for Him here in this life. Help me to hear the faintest voice of the Spirit of Grace, to know what is beating in His heart, to know what are His concerns and to pray accordingly. Help me to be an immediate, joyful, and complete "obeyer," in Jesus name, amen."

19. How do they get deer to cross the road only at those yellow road signs?
20. What was the best thing before sliced bread?
21. One nice thing about egotists: they don't talk about other people.
23. How is it possible to have a civil war?

ATTENTION BELIEVERS

For some time now, we have been sensing that the Lord wants to impart new direction for the ministry. We invite you to join with us in prayer and fasting, as the Lord leads, for the remainder of 2009 as we seek His face. We are living in times of great change and feel it is imperative to continue to hear the heartbeat of God.

Proverbs 8:17 says, "I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me."

Psalms 111:10 says, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments...."

Psalm 130:5 says, "I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."
